Confidential Recommendation for Silver Beaver Award

The Boy Scouts of America, acting through the national Court of Honor, may award the Silver Beaver Award for distinguished service to youth, upon the recommendation of the local council.

The council can recommend annually, men and women twenty-one years of or older, who are currently registered in Scouting on the basis of one person per sixty registered units in the council. Nominations cannot be made posthumous awards.

The Silver Beaver Award is made for noteworthy service of exceptional character to youth by registered Scouters, Cub Scouters and Venturing leaders within the territory under the jurisdiction of a local council.

Care should be used in securing information, to not convey the idea that the recommended person will receive the Silver Beaver. He or she should not be aware of being under consideration. Only a few of those recommended can be honored.
